The Duck tape brand sponsorship is fitting as Collins and his wife, Patti, previously surprised an audience with outfits made of Duck brand duct tape at an event at the famous Apollo Theater in New York City last year.

CLEVELAND - On Tuesday, the Rock Hall announced an additional concert to coincide with the Induction 2012 events in April.

Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Inductee Bootsy Collins and the Funk Unity Band will perform at the Beachland Ballroom on Friday, April 6. Doors are at 7:30 p.m. and the show starts at 8:30 p.m. The show is sponsored by Duck brand duct tape.

Parliament Funkadelic bassist William “Bootsy” Collins is known for his star-shaped sunglasses, glittery “space bass” and charismatic demeanor. For his new concert tour, Collins has assembled P-Funk alumni Bernie Worrell, Frankie Kash Waddy and Blackbyrd McKnight as well as Razor Sharp Johnson and T.M. Stevens to form the Funk Unity Band for the 2012 Funk Unity Tour in support of his new album, Tha Funk Capitol Of The World.

The Duck tape brand sponsorship is fitting as Collins and his wife, Patti, previously surprised an audience with outfits made of Duck brand duct tape at an event at the famous Apollo Theater in New York City last year.

Tickets are $35 and go on sale to the general public at 10 a.m. on Wed. March 14 at www.beachlandballroom.com or by calling 216-383-1124.

A limited number of VIP tickets to "Hang with Bootsy" before the show are available for $125. Please call the Rock Hall at 216- 515-1233 to make reservations.

This Rock and Roll Hall of Fame's 27th Annual Induction Ceremony will take place in Cleveland's Public Hall on Saturday, April 14. This will be the third time that Cleveland is hosting the event.

For more information about the show or Induction 2012 week events, visit rockhall.com .