Columbus OH -- Live outdoor music will ring out throughout central Ohio this summer at the King Arts Complex and the Easton Town Center.

The King Arts Complex, 867 Mt. Vernon Ave., will host the 12th Annual Heritage Concert Series every Thursday July 8 through Aug. 26 from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in
Mayme Moore Park
(adjacent to the Complex). The concert series attracts 2,500 to 4,000 people each week from all walks of life from surrounding communities and beyond for live music, food and more.

“The King-Lincoln District will come alive with our 12th Annual Heritage Concert Series,” said Sheryle Powell, executive director of the King Arts Complex. “We’re looking forward to once again embracing those kindred spirits.”

The Heritage Concert Series schedule is as follows:

July 8 – The Ohio State University with performance by Mojoflo

July 15 – fo/mo/deep

July 22 – Sabrina Tutstone & NexLevl

July 29 – Shirley Murdock

Aug. 5 – Urban Jazz Coalition

Aug. 12 – Dean Simms and the Funky Gurus

Aug. 19 – The Soul of Carpe Diem

Aug. 26 – Gene “KingSaxe” Walker

For more information, call the King Arts Complex at (614) 645-5464 or visit Kingartscomplex.com.

The Easton Town Center will host its popular Sounds on the Town Jazz Concert Series each Wednesday through Aug. 31 from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Town Square . The series features a mix of local, regional and national jazz musicians. The schedule is as follows:

June 15 – Sabrina Tutstone

June 22 – HooDooSoul Band

June 29 – Sammy DeLeon y su Orquesta

July 6 – Urban Jazz Coalition

July 13 – Wade and the Mojo Blues Band

July 20 – Big Sam’s Funky Nation

July 27 – Clave Sonic

Aug. 3 – Lipbone Redding & the LipBone Orchestra

Aug. 10 – The Floorwalkers

Aug. 17 – The Kelly Bell Band

Aug. 24 – fo/mo/deep

Aug. 31 – Luxury Brown

For more information, visit Eastontowncenter.com.