Kizer/Call & Post's Game-of-the-Week

Notre Dame – Cathedral Latin (3-2) vs. #15 Benedictine (3-2) at Bearcat Stadium, Bedford – Saturday 1 p.m.

Both teams started the season 0-2. Now both teams have won three in a row. The state playoff rankings were released last Tuesday and they are neck-and-neck in the D-III standings. The Bengals are ranked 11th (the top eight make it), and are led by wide receiver, Marshall Howell, and freshman quarterback, Brian Schoeffler. Howell added four more touchdowns to his stats in their 52-18 cake walk over Cleveland Central Catholic, becoming the guy you have to key on. The Bengals' (ranked #15 in the Kizer/Call & Post's Top 15) first two victories were nail-biters. For the Lions, the last three were routs. The Lions chewed up visiting Central Tech, 61-21. The Lions scored the first 48 points.  The Bengals have won four out of five against the Lions.

Kizer's pick – The Bengals, they are at home.
